This DVD contains information on the burial sites of thousands of Confederate Soldiers plus cemetery listings from some of the major Confederate Cemeteries.

The data on this DVD consists primarily of sets of Excel spreadsheets organized by state and cemetery.

There is also a master collection of all known cemeteries in the U.S. by State and County with notes on location, GPS coordinates, links to on-line listings of the cemetery and notes on Cemetery books available from local historical societies. The master database has over 119,000 entries.

The following books are included on the Gravesites of Confederate Soldiers DVD:

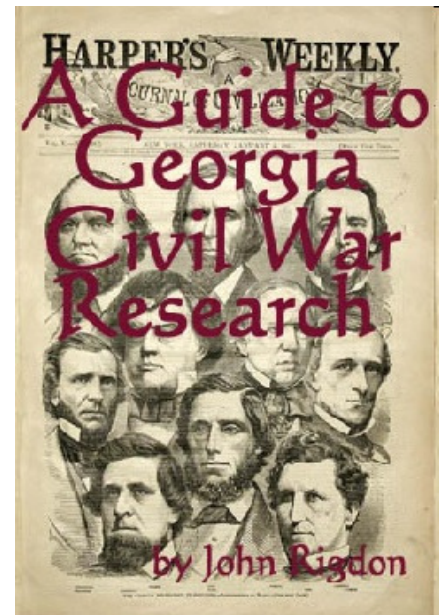

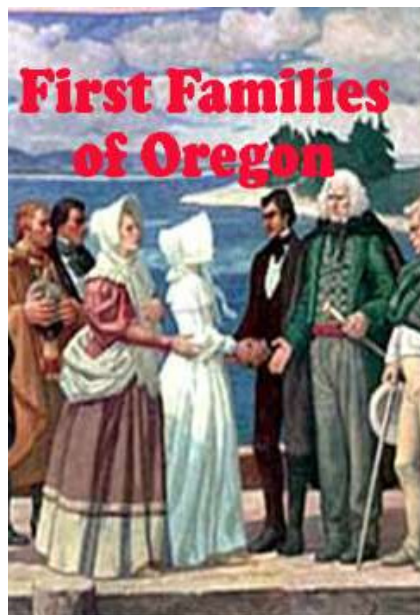

Oakwoods Cemetery - Chicago, IL (Camp Chase) - 72 pgs.

Register of the Confederate Dead in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va - 118 pgs.

These volumes contain historical notes and genealogical information on the first families to settle in a particular county with notes on their family ties to the Civil War Soldiers recruited in the county.

A GUIDE TO GEORGIA CIVIL WAR RESEARCH

Rather than focusing on the big picture, this book helps you look for a very small cog in the wheel, regular people, with ordinary problems and concerns, who found themselves swept into the vortex of war in their own homes.

The book is 250 pages in length and it will open up the universe of materials available to you in a way never shown before.

CONTENTS

Getting Started

Finding a Name - How to find the name of your ancestor who fought in the war.

A Word About Troop Organization - What does regiment, company, battalion, squadron, army, corps, and battery mean and why should I care?

A Mini Course on How To Do Research

Off Line Resources for Research - General reference material for researching both the war in Georgia and Georgia troops who fought in Virginia and in the west.

Military Service Records - An introduction to the holdings in the National and State archives and how to access the finding aids on line.

Veteran Records - Pension records, the United Confederate Veterans, the 1890 Veterans Census,

Forget-me-nots of the Civil War; A Romance, Containing Reminiscences and Original Letters of Two Confederate Soldiers. Battle, Laura Elizabeth Lee 355 pgs. - Paperback $25.00 DVD-ROM $15.00

The day that the gallant "Fourth North Carolina Regiment" passed our town my half brothers, Walter and George, bade us all goodbye amid tears and hurrahs, bands playing and the crowd singing, "Shout the joyous notes of freedom" and off to the war they went. They had spent some little time at Fort Macon, but now they were on their way to Richmond and death. Some of their letters have been preserved up to this time; they were written on scraps of writing paper and sometimes cheapest wrapping paper. It may be interesting to publish them for future generations, to know exactly what two young Southern boys thought of war in the beginning, and how one, at least, throughout those terrible battles at Spottsylvania Court House, etc., lasted to give us such a vivid description of them, and I have written them verbatim from the original letters, and know nothing was exaggerated from their view point..

Civil War Prisoner of War Records

We have put together the FIRST comprehensive database of Civil War Prisoner of War records - both Federal and Confederate on this CD-ROM. The entire CD-ROM is searchable and in TEXT format making it easy to extract information for your own notes and research.

1. The Complete text of the Official Records Series II which deals with Prisoners of War. This series of books was originally published about 1900 in 8 volumes and contains 10,077 pages.

From the Preface:

The second series will contain the correspondence, orders, reports, and returns, Union and Confederate, relating to prisoners of war, and (so far as the military authorities were concerned) to State or political prisoners.

2. A dozen full length books with personal accounts of life in civil war prisons. The major prisons are covered, Andersonville, Camp Chase, Elmira, Johnson's Island, plus many lesser known camps.

3. Dozens of shorter first hand accounts in the form of letters, diaries, and memoirs all arranged by prison.

4. Account and list of the dead of the Sultana Steamship disaster.

5. List of dead at Elmira, Johnson's Island and Andersonville prisons.

Company "AYTCH"

A Sideshow of the Big Show

by Sam R. Watkins

384 pgs.

Among the books about the Civil War Company Aytch stands out for its uniquely personal view of the events as related by a most engaging writer – a man with Twain-like talents who served as a foot soldier for four long years in the Confederate army. This book is considered to be the best account of the Civil War ever written from the Confederate point of view. It is also the one most frequently cited by historians of the Western campaigns. Originally published in 1881 as a series of articles in the Columbia, Tennessee, Herald, Sam Watkins's account has long been recognized by historians as one of the most lively and witty accounts of the war. Parallels between this text and The Red Badge of Courage suggest that Stephen Crane was also among Private Watkins's readers. Sam served in the Tennessee 1st Infantry Regiment (Field's). He faithfully served throughout the duration of the War, participating in many battles. Of the 120 men who enlisted in "Company H" in 1861, Watkins was one of only seven alive when General Joseph E. Johnston's Army of Tennessee surrendered to General William Tecumseh Sherman in North Carolina April, 1865. Of the 1,200 men who fought in the First Tennessee, only 65 were left to be paroled on that day. Soon after the war ended, Watkins began writing his memoir; "Co. Aytch". It was originally serialized in the Columbia, Tennessee Herald newspaper.

An Index to The Confederate Veteran Magazine

The Confederate Veteran magazine was founded in 1893 by Sumner Archibald Cunningham, who also edited it.

This index was compiled by Mr. Cunningham. It contains approximately 75,000 entries and is organized into the following sub-categories for each month:

- Title of the Articles
- Names mentioned
- Subjects
- Poetry Titles
- Authors
- Portraits
